

On behalf of the entire team of NBC News we would like to thank Ms.Nimalka Morahela who joined us as a coordinator to manage a group of journalists and coordinate specific activities.

We were in Sri Lanka for 27 days following the aftermath of the Tsunami that struck many countries surrounded by the Indian Ocean on 26th of December 2004. Throughout our stay Ms.Morahela was able to exceed our expectations with her talented professionalism, efficiency and quick solutions to many obstacles prevalent during this chaotic time.

It is with great pleasure that I would recommend Ms.Morahela for any endeavor following the success me and my team were able to experience throughout our stay in Sri Lanka due to her dedication and passion and ability surpass any barrier that came her way.
